

NYC Youth Art and Design Programs
Program Name	Program summary	Contact
Parsons Pre-College Program	Not Free. Designed for students in grades 3 through 12, Parsons' Pre-College Academy meets Saturday mornings during the school year and for two weeks during the summer. Classes are organized by grade level for elementary school, middle school, and high school groups. TAKE CLASSES ON SATURDAY MORNINGS FOR 11 WEEKS, OR TAKE A TWO-WEEK SUMMER INTENSIVE COURSE. Pre-College Academy classes meet on Saturday mornings for 11 weeks in the fall and spring semesters and every weekday for two weeks in the summer. Students are divided into elementary, middle school, and high school groups. A wide selection of age-appropriate courses is offered, including animation, fashion, graphic design, interior design, drawing, painting, cartooning, photography, and portfolio development.	http://www.newschool.edu/parsons/pre-college-academy/academy@newschool.edu The New School 66 West 12th Street New York, NY 10011
Parsons Scholars Program	Free. The Parsons Scholars program is a multi-year, need-based scholarship program for motivated New York City public school students interested in art and design study. Accepted students participate from 10th grade through 12th grade. Parsons Scholars have the opportunity to explore a wide variety of studio subjects in the Pre-College Academy and Summer Intensive Studies programs, where they acquire skills and knowledge that will help them gain admission to and succeed in colleges of art and design. In addition to taking classes, students participate in workshops and field trips to gain exposure to art and design fields. Students earn college credit and a Pre-College Certificate from Parsons upon successful completion of the Parsons Scholars program.	http://www.newschool.edu/parsons/design-scholarship/ParsonsScholars@newschool.edu The New School 66 West 12th Street New York, NY 10011
92nd Y	Free. Art Center classes provide high-quality enrichment experiences in the visual arts for children and teens. Classes are taught by professional artists who design fun, challenging and educational projects. All materials, museum fees and firing fees are included.	http://www.92y.org/Uptown/Classes/Teens/Art 212.415.5562 92Y1395 Lexington Avenue New York, NY 10128
Art Directors Club High School Workshops	Starting in 1997, the ADC along with the School Art League and New York Board of Education has offered a series of Saturday Career Workshops to 50 talented high school juniors from all five boroughs of New York City. Each spring and fall, rising stars of design lead a series of Saturday Career Workshops for NYC public high school students. Students work with one creative each week to learn about graphic design, art direction, copy writing, or any number of different fields in communication. On a typical Saturday, the leader gives a talk on his or her background, followed by a creative project assignment and group critique. At the end of the six-part series, students have a portfolio of quality work and a greater understanding of the design field	http://www.adcglobal.org/education/highschool/workshops/flora@adcglobal.org (Flora Moir, education coordinator) 212-643-1440 106 West 29th Street New York, NY 10001
Art Lab in Staten Island	Not Free. Art Lab is a school of fine and applied art located in Staten Island, New York on the grounds of Snug Harbor Cultural Center. The school was founded in 1975 by a group of professional artists who wanted to give Staten Island a home where quality art instruction, exhibitions and events could take place. Today, Art Lab continues this tradition in providing exceptional art opportunities to Staten Island and the greater metropolitan community.	718-447-8667 http://www.artlab.info 100 Richmond Terrace Staten Island, NY 10301
Art Students League	The Art Students League educates students in the language and process of making art. It is a place where anyone who wishes to pursue an art education can realize his or her full potential. Classes are based on the atelier system, where working artist trains students in a studio setting. You can register and start classes at any time. Monthly registration and the League's commitment to low tuition help students receive the best training available without accumulating debt. There are no prerequisites for enrollment.	http://www.theartstudentsleague.org/info@artstudentsleague.org (212) 247-4510 215 West 57th Street New York, NY 10019
ARTS CONNECTION: TRaC (Teen Reviewers and Critics) Program	Free. The TRaC Program is an exceptional opportunity for high school students who want to explore and experience the arts in New York City. Participants see first-hand how artists work, think and live; attend arts events, discuss and write arts criticism. Free.	http://www.artsconnection.org/news.asp info@high5tix.org (212) 750-0555 520 8th Ave., Suite 321, 3rd Fl. New York, NY 10018
Bronx Museum of Art	All work-study students attend three meetings each semester: orientation, mid-semester professional development, and end-of-semester reflection. Teen Council is Free. It is a paid internship.	http://bronxmuseum.org/education.html (718) 681-6000 education@bronxmuseum.org
Bronx River Art Center	Bronx River Art Center (BRAC) is a culturally diverse, multi-arts, non-profit organization that provides a forum for community, artists, and youth to transform creativity into vision. Our Education, Exhibitions, Artist Studios, and Presenting Programs cultivate leadership in an urban environment and stewardship of our natural resource — the Bronx River.	http://www.bronxriverart.org/classes@bronxriverart.org 718-589-5819 2064 Boston Road
Brooklyn Museum of Art Gallery/Studio Program	The Gallery/Studio Program offers fun and challenging studio art courses. You're invited to be inspired and guided by professional teaching artists, to see our collections in a new way, to create your own art with new and traditional materials, and to show your work in our Con Edison Education Gallery. For students under 18: Members: $211 per course* General: $231 per course* Scholarships available	http://www.brooklynmuseum.org/education/gallery-studio/gallery-studio.php Brooklyn Museum 200 Eastern Parkway Brooklyn, NY 11238-6052 (718) 638-5000 teen.programs@brooklynmuseum.org

NYC Youth Art and Design Programs
Program Name	Program summary	Contact
Brooklyn Museum of Art Teen Night Planning Committee	High school students, learn the ins and outs of event planning in the arts in this paid internship. Want to help plan Teen Night? Application forms for the 2013–14 year are now available and are accepted June 1–October 11, 2013. Hiring interviews will take place October 19–20. Want to perform at Teen Night? Submit a proposal. Teen Night Planning Committee members design, promote, and facilitate Teen Nights at the Museum. Members of the Committee have the opportunity to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Select local teen performers and artists for Teen Night events Engage teens in Teen Night activities Learn how to network and promote special events Develop time management, organization, communication, and event-planning skills Collaborate with peers in a group setting All applicants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Must be a high school student at least 14 years of age Must commit to attending weekly meetings, every Wednesday from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Must attend all Teen Night events, which fall on the second Friday of February, March, April, and May Participants in this program are paid $7.25 per hour, for up to 64 hours. Returning participants are paid $8.25 per hour. Questions about this program may be directed to the Teen Program Coordinator at teen.programs@brooklynmuseum.org.	http://www.brooklynmuseum.org/education/teens/teen_planning.php teen.programs@brooklynmuseum.org Brooklyn Museum 200 Eastern Parkway Brooklyn, NY 11238-6052
	Brooklyn Museum of Art Work Study Program	Free class. High school sophomores, juniors, and seniors, build your résumé while taking an art class free of charge! You will assist professional teaching artists in classes for students ages six through twelve, preparing art supplies, helping with group management in the studio and galleries, and working one-on-one with students. In return, you will take your own art class with other teens, for free.
College Now	Free. College Now is CUNY's largest collaborative program with the New York City secondary public school system. The program offers dual enrollment and college-readiness programs in more than 350 NYC high schools and enrolls close to 20,000 students annually. In all, there are seventeen campus-based College Now programs which are overseen by a central office. Although the program varies from school to school and campus to campus, they are similar in terms of overall structure, implementation and goals. The goal of College Now, much like many dual enrollment programs, is to help students meet high school graduation requirements and prepare for success in college, both academically and socially. In addition, program administrators have designed program activities with the goal of enhancing performance on Regents and CUNY placement exams so that students will be able to enroll in college without the need for remediation.	http://collegenow.cuny.edu/ 718-254-7350 16 Court Street, 3rd Floor Brooklyn, NY 11201
Cooper Hewitt, National Design Museum	Free. DesignPrep is a series of FREE programs, including workshops, studio and college visits, that focuses on all design disciplines from fashion and architecture to product design. DesignPrep participants also have the opportunity to take part in programs offered through the Hive Learning Network. Various DesignPrep programs are offered throughout the year—check out videos from previous workshops to see the type of experiences offered.	http://www.cooperhewitt.org/education/designprep cheducation@si.edu 212.849.8380 2 East 91st St, New York, Ny, 10128, USA
Cooper Union School of Art	Free. The Saturday Program offers six free studio art courses enrolling over 200 New York City Public High School students. Most classes meet from 10:00am to 5:00pm on Saturdays for two semesters, October through April. This schedule provides the intensive working time necessary to explore media, technique and concept for both the beginner and the student with art experience.	http://www.saturdayoutreach.org/ outreach@cooper.edu 212-353-4202 (Outreach Program) 212-353-4108 (Saturday Programs) 30 Cooper Square New York, NY 10002
DCTV's PROTV	Free. PRO-TV is the most successful youth media arts training program in the nation. Offering free training to the youth of New York City since 1978, PRO-TV provides positive creative outlets for young people to address the issues affecting their lives and their communities. Students are paired with top teaching artists who guide them through a rich curriculum of media arts training using state-of-the-art equipment. In programs ranging from one day to three years in duration, students have the opportunity to:	http://www.dctvny.org/youth chinisha@dctvny.org Phone: (212) 966-4510 Fax: (212) 226-3053 Address: 87 Lafayette St, New York, NY 10013

NYC Youth Art and Design Programs
Program Name	Program summary	Contact
DICE Design Initiative for Community Empowerment (at Pratt Institute)	Free. Established in 2005, DICE is a grant-funded, after-school program that offers high school students an introduction to design through studio work, tours of design studios, public exhibitions and visits from accomplished designers. The goal of DICE is to introduce local youth to career and advanced educational opportunities in design and to prepare them to pursue these opportunities through a creative and rigorous design education program.	http://www.pratt.edu/academics/art_design/art_ug/art_and_design_education/dice@pratt.edu Tel. 718-636-3654 Department of Art and Design Education Pratt Institute 200 Willoughby Ave SH 203 Brooklyn, NY 11205
Fashion Institute of Technology (F.I.T.)	Practice the art of storytelling using design, lighting, sound and image. $15 registration fee.	http://fitnyc.edu/7614.asp PrecollegePrograms@fitnyc.edu 212 217.4630 Seventh Avenue at 27 Street New York City 10001-5992
Global Kids Xpressions	Free. Attend seminars on media literacy and the history of media arts	www.globalkids.org info@globalkids.org (212) 226-0130 137 East 25th Street, 2nd Floor New York, NY 10010
GROUNDSWELL COMMUNITY MURAL PROJECT	Groundswell Community Mural Project brings together youth, professional artists, and communities in partnership creating high quality works of public art in under-represented neighborhoods. Internship.	www.groundswellmural.org director@groundswellmural.org (718) 254-9782 339 Douglass Street, Brooklyn, NY 11217
Guggenheim Museum	Free. View and deconstruct films in roundtable discussions.	http://www.guggenheim.org/new-york/education/families-kids-teens/teenprograms@guggenheim.org 212 423 3781 Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum 1071 Fifth Avenue (at 89th Street) New York, NY 10128-0173
Harlem School of the Arts	Free. Master cameras, audio equipment, and digital editing systems	http://www.harlemschoolofhearts.org/aie.php nnoel@hsanyc.org 212.926.4100 x332 (Nadege Noel, Prep Director) 645 Saint Nicholas Avenue at 141st Street, NYC 10030.
Henry Street Settlement at Abrons Art Center	Not Free. Youth Services at Henry Street Settlement provides a safe, structured and holistic environment within our programs, which educate, empower and promote social and emotional development. Our goal is for young people and their families to become confident, compassionate and progressive leaders within the global community. Henry Street Settlement's Abrons Arts Center, at 466 Grand Street, offers superb training programs for all ages and skill levels in dance, music, theater and the visual arts. All classes are taught by professional teaching artists, and all students are provided numerous opportunities to enhance their learning through the diverse range of performances and exhibits offered in our theatres and galleries throughout the year.	http://www.henrystreet.org/programs/youth/ , http://www.abronsartscenter.org/classes-and-summer-programs/teen-classes.html grideout@henrystreet.org 212.254.3100 Henry Street Settlement 265 Henry Street New York, New York 10002
HESTER STREET COLLABORATIVE	CITIZEN DESIGNER INTERNSHIP is an after-school and summer internship program that empowers young adults to improve public	www.hesterstreet.org info@hesterstreet.org (212) 431-6780 113 Hester Street New York, NY 10002
High 5	Through ArtsConnection's Tickets to the Arts program, teens ages 13 to 18 buy $5 tickets to the best of New York City dance, music, theater and visual arts events year round. Tickets to museums are two for $5 every day	www.highfivetix.org info@high5tix.org 212.750.0555 520 8th Ave, 3rd Floor, Suite 321
International Center of Photography (ICP) at THE POINT	Free. A collaborative program with the International Center of Photography, ICP at THE POINT teaches youth students the fundamentals of black-and-white photography.	www.thepoint.org/icp.php (718) 542-4139 940 Garrison Avenue • Bronx, NY 10474
INTERNATIONAL CENTER OF PHOTOGRAPHY Teen Academy	ICP's Teen Academy program offers a range of opportunities for teenagers to begin and further develop their knowledge of photography. Scholarships available.	http://www.icp.org/school/teen-academy teen_academy@icp.org (212) 857-0061 1114 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10036

NYC Youth Art and Design Programs
Program Name	Program summary	Contact
Joan Mitchell Foundation: Jump Start (Grades 9-12), Young Adult Program (Ages 18-25), Figure Drawing (Grades 8-12), Saturday Studios (Grades 3-12)	Free. A central principle of the Foundation's mission is to encourage the ambitions and education of developing visual artists. The Foundation's Art Education program strives to fulfill this mission by providing opportunities for both emerging youth artists and working adult artists through inclusive and diverse arts education programming, offered completely free to the public. The program enhances the artistic education of young painters and sculptors through studio classes, in concert with other educational opportunities encouraging students to pursue and develop their voice in the arts. Simultaneously, the program supports the artistic development of working painters and sculptors through teaching opportunities, professional development training, and engagement with the artistic community. The Art Education program began in 1997 with a single community partner, four Artist-Teachers and two classes that served approximately thirty students on Saturdays. Currently, the Art Education program partners with six organizations, offers Saturday, weekday, and summer programming, employs over forty Artist-Teachers, and serves 1,000 students each week.	http://joanmitchellfoundation.org/education-programs/register info@joanmitchellfoundation.org 212 524 0100 545 West 25th Street 15th Floor New York, NY 10001
LEAVE OUT VIOLENCE U.S. (LOVE U.S.)	Free. LOVE is a non-profit after school program that serves at risk youth 12-18 years old, who are victims, survivors, witnesses and/or perpetrators of violence. LOVE teaches a message of non-violence through our writing program and through photography. Media Arts Program (MAP): Youth are immersed in a year-long program that develops the photography and writing skills necessary to better understand, learn to reduce, and document the violence that surrounds them. Participants learn to express and document their thoughts and feelings about what violence means to them and how it affects their lives. Programs are offered at local high schools and at our center, The Nicole Schifman center for LOVE youth. Programs are led by visual and media arts and social service professionals. Summer Video Program: This six to eight-week, youth-directed video production program runs from late June through mid August and serves 12-15 youth Leaders, Leaders-in-Training and MAP participants. Projects have included the production of documentaries, advertisements and public service announcements. Videos are then screened to a supportive audience followed by rich discussions and online postings.	www.leaveoutviolence-us.org love@leaveoutviolence-us.org (212) 714-1194 240 West 35th Street, Suite 200, New York, NY 10001
Metropolitan Museum of Art	Free. Come in from the hectic city streets and relax in front of a work of art at the Met. Join other teens in free classes and events that are all about understanding art and exploring the Museum. Be inspired by the Museum's masterpieces as you create your own. Play with materials in unexpected ways during these classes in the galleries and studios.	http://www.metmuseum.org/events/programs/teen-programs teenprograms@metmuseum.org 212-535-7710 The Metropolitan Museum of Art 1000 Fifth Avenue New York, New York 10028-0198
Museum of Art and Design	Free. Artslife is a paid summer internship for rising juniors and seniors which provide New York City High School students with real work experience in the arts.	http://madmuseum.org/programs/teen-programs-mad School, Youth and Family Programs Cathleen Lewiscathleen.lewis@madmuseum.org 212-299-7777 2 Columbus Circle New York, NY 10019
Museum of Modern Art	Free. Take a free class at MoMA. Join other teens in creating art, curating exhibits, and designing multimedia resources for other teens. Make and discuss modern and contemporary art Collaborate to design programs and exhibits for other teens Explore what happens behind the scenes at MoMA	http://www.moma.org/learn/teens/index 11 West 53 Street New York, NY 10019 teenprograms@moma.org (212) 333-1252
National Academy of Design	Not Free. Using a stimulating, thoughtful approach, faculty guide students in their creative practice, focusing on teaching new techniques and helping students expand and articulate their artistic vision.	http://www.nationalacademy.org/art-school/ schoolinfo@nationalacademy.org 212-996-1908 National Academy Museum 1083 Fifth Avenue New York, New York 10128
NEW MUSEUM	Free. The New Museum's mission is to promote New Art and New Ideas. The Global Classroom (G:Class) utilizes the Museum as a resource to enhance learning and engage high school students through the exploration of contemporary art connecting to local, global, and cultural issues that affect their lives.	www.gclass.org www.newmuseum.org kmackenzie@newmuseum.org (212) 219-1222 x231 235 Bowery New York, NY 10002
NEW YORK SCHOOL OF INTERIOR DESIGN PreCollege Program	Scholarship available. This interactive two-week course is designed to immerse you in the creative and rewarding world of interior design. Open to high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors, the course will introduce you to interior design and help you explore career possibilities.	www.nysid.edu admissions@nysid.edu (212) 472-1500 ext. 205 170 East 70th Street, New York, NY 10021

NYC Youth Art and Design Programs
Program Name	Program summary	Contact
NYU'S TISCH SCHOOL OF THE ARTS: Programs for High School Students	Free. Tisch School of the Arts offers free programs for high school students in filmmaking, music production, and dance. Saturday classes run February thru May; application deadline in October.	www.tisch.nyu.edu Patricia Decker, Director of Recruitment (212) 998-1900 Tisch School of the Arts 721 Broadway, NY, NY 10003
Pratt Institute Pre-College Program	Not Free. Fall and Spring Pre-College programs at Pratt are for commuter students, and are held on weekends at the Manhattan campus. The summer program is a month-long intensive for both commuter and resident students. THE PRE-COLLEGE SUMMER PROGRAM Each summer, over 400 high school students seize the opportunity to experience college-level study in Pratt Institute's Pre-College program. Students are immersed in a program of art, design, architecture, creative writing, or critical & visual studies, modeled after Pratt's undergraduate offerings. Upon completion of the program, students earn four elective college credits.	http://www.pratt.edu/admissions/applying/precollege/precollege@pratt.edu 212-647-7199; 718-636-3453 "Brooklyn Campus 200 Willoughby Avenue Brooklyn, NY 11205"
Queens Council on the Arts' High School to Art School Program	Free. The High School to Art School program (HS2AS) is a free portfolio development program aimed at developing and fostering an in-depth understanding of art, while guiding NYC high school students through the art college application process. Having served high school students of all backgrounds in the greater NYC area for over a decade, HS2AS has helped over 800 students reach their goal of being accepted into the best art programs and colleges throughout the country.	http://queenscouncilarts.org/qcaeducation@gmail.com Won Cha (347)505-3012 37-11 35th Ave, Entrance on 37th St. (Under the Blue Awning) Astoria, NY 11101
School of Visual Arts Pre-College Programs	Not Free. SVA's Pre-College Program is designed for high school students who want to enhance their creative skills, learn more about a particular field of art, develop a portfolio and/or experience the challenges and triumphs that exist at one of the most dynamic colleges. Receive up to three college credits Students will explore the fundamentals of art & design at a level not readily available in high school Classes such as Animation, Advertising, Cartooning, Painting, Photography & many more	http://www.sva.edu/special-programs/pre-college-program precollege@sva.edu 212.592.2100 209 East 23 Street
Summer Arts Institute	Free. The Summer Arts Institute is a tuition-free, intensive, arts program for New York City public school students entering grades 8-12, held at Frank Sinatra School of the Arts High School in Astoria, Queens, from July 8 through August 2, 2013. Students can major in dance, theater, instrumental music (band), vocal music, film, photography or visual arts. The program is designed for students at an intermediate or advanced level of study in their chosen discipline.	http://schools.nyc.gov/offices/teachlearn/arts/summerarts.html summerarts@schools.nyc.gov 212-374-684 52 Chambers St, Rm 210, NY, NY 10007
SUNY Purchase Pre-College Programs	The precollege programs in the arts at Purchase College are for high school students who are passionate artists and/or have an interest in pursuing the arts on a college level. These institutes provide portfolio building and audition training technique opportunities. Institute students may earn certificates based on participation and attendance. In addition to tuition, a $25 nonrefundable noncredit registration fee (per student) is paid once per semester, at the time of registration. Students who register only for noncredit courses are not required to pay certain fees. http://www.purchase.edu/departments/AcademicPrograms/ce/RegistrationGuide/TuitionAndFees.aspx	www.purchase.edu/PrecollegePrograms coted@purchase.edu (914) 251-6500 SUNY Purchase College 735 Anderson Hill Road Purchase, NY 10577-1400
The ACE Mentor Program of Greater New York	Teams of students and mentoring firms are assembled and meet throughout the school year at the firm offices. The students plan and design innovative projects mirroring "real-world" conditions while mentors help them develop solutions using basic problem-solving techniques and state-of-the-art design tools. The teams also tour construction sites and notable buildings to see firsthand what is required to design and erect these kinds of structures. This program is free. You must apply through an application. After the process has been done you're able to goto a huge meet where you're able to view previous teams work and join a group based on your availability.	http://www.acementor.org/610 annika@acementor.org 212.696.1207
The Studio Museum in Harlem	Free. The Studio Museum is dedicated to creating a safe environment for teens to express themselves creatively. The Museum offers free programs for students outside of the school environment. The programs offer students the opportunity to meet and converse with prominent visual artists, express their ideas in discussions, facilitate tours and hands on workshops, and develop important communication and critical thinking skills. - See more at: http://www.studiomuseum.org/learn/education/teens#sthash.h9gXV0iv.dpuff	http://www.studiomuseum.org/learn/public-programs/teenseducation@studiomuseum.org 212.864.4500 x258 144 West 125th Street, New York, New York
The TORCH Program	Free. The TORCH Program is a program that exposes New York City High school students to life in the advertising world from your sophomore year until your senior year. Along your journey through you will work on different projects, which could include movie making, as well as event planning which is always a fun and interesting project. TORCH allows the students build relationships with the workers, which could possibly lead to long lasting friendships and future internships. After you three years at torch you can often come by and serve a mentor to the rising TORCH participants and TORCH always contacts their alumni for any available internships and or jobs.	http://www.thetorchprogram.org debid@thetorchprogram.org (212) 929-9573 New York, NY 10011

NYC Youth Art and Design Programs
Program Name	Program summary	Contact
Visual Arts at The Point	Free. THE POINT's Visual Arts Program aims to support the positive development of youth and promote arts literacy through weekly workshops, in which young people in grades 1-12 learn the fundamentals of drawing and painting and participate in creative projects. Each spring students have the opportunity to showcase their work in the At the Heart of THE POINT exhibit.	http://www.thepoint.org/artsforkids.php dannythepoint@gmail.com (718) 542-4139 THE POINT CDC 940 Garrison Avenue Bronx, NY 10474
Whitney Museum Youth Insights	Free. The Youth Insights Artists program brings teens together with contemporary artists, providing opportunities to work collaboratively, discuss art critically, think creatively, and make art inspired by this exchange. Youth Insights (YI) currently offers two free, semester-long after-school programs each spring and fall for 9th through 12th grade New York City high school students: Youth Insights Artists and Youth Insights Writers.	http://whitney.org/Education/Teens YouthInsights@whitney.org (212) 570-7710 945 Madison Avenue at 75th Street New York, NY 10021